THE SUN OF PROSPERITY.
The preparations being made by the United States Steel Corporation for the erection of three more large coke plants in the Lower Connellville region is only another proof of the fact that the sun of prosperity, momentarily obscured by the clouds of overproduction and speculation and Presidential politics, is rapidly emerging into a clear sky; and that the astronomers of finance and industry, having calculated the eclipse, are getting ready to "make hay" during the long and shining day of harvest.

The Fall Dinner Party, which the Democratic organs speak of often and derisively, has never been empty, nor approaching it. Wages generally have remained liberal in spite of trade depression. In the Connellville coke region and in the mills and factories of Western Pennsylvania wages continue high enough. In spite of a general reduction, to enable any industrious workman to earn a good living and to lay up something for the future.

The Democrats invite the owners of full dinner pails to vote for Tariff "revision," which is another name for Tariff reduction by Free Trade tinkers, the same kind of tinkering that always shuts down the mines and ovens, closes up the mills and factories and empties the full dinner pails.

There is only one industry that thrived under Democratic tariff revision, namely, the soup houses.

NERVE OR IMPUDENCE?
The world admires a man of nerve, but there is such a thing as over-nerve. A superabundance of nerve sometimes amounts to arrant impudence. It is often the only means of meeting an unanswerable argument or an undeniable situation. This seems to be the plight of our otherwise esteemed contemporary, The Uniontown Genius. It says:

The condition of the coke trade in West Virginia is very sad. But we expect it to pick up again before long. The nomination of Parker and Davis has brought about a very considerable revival of business in many places, and no doubt the improvement will reach West Virginia before long. At least we hope so. The "business interests" struggled with a heavy incubus in the possibility of Roosevelt's election, but now that this has been removed the "business interests" feel at rest again. The G. O. P. leadership is not regarded as either sane or safe.

The people of this country, including Candidate Parker and all the Gold Democrats, not to mention all the intelligent Free Silver Democrats, know that it was not the fear of Republican success, but the shadow of Bryanism, that affected the business of the country. The business interests are at rest because they are no longer threatened by that shadow.

Judge Parker's attitude on the money question is the attitude of the Republican party, not the attitude of the Democratic party, which in convention assembled refused to declare for sound money, or to in any manner retract its Free Silver heresy; not the attitude of The Genius, which has never missed an opportunity to assail with intense bitterness Sound Money and Gold Democrats. In a recent issue, it declared, "Speaking from the sincerity of its heart, The Genius would rather go down to defeat under Bryan than to victory with Parker."

If the business of the country is better, it is in spite of such Democratic organs as The Genius and such Democrats as William Jennings Bryan.

THE STAR OF THE WEST.
A Democratic nomination in Westmoreland county is now so empty an honor that the primaries have been abandoned for lack of candidates. The nominations are made by the County Committee, and the county has to be secured with a fine tooth comb to find enough unwilling Barkies to make out a ticket.

Westmoreland was Democratic when Democracy stood for something, but when the party degenerated into Populism and Socialism and Anarchy its intelligent and self-respecting membership bade it farewell. It was then that the Star of the West was out in dark eclipse and disappeared from the heaven of Democratic hopes.

THE LAW AND THE PEOPLE.
Uniontown has a curfew law, but no curfew bell. In this respect the law is in precisely the same condition as all the laws which the Pennsylvania Legislature has ever placed upon the statute book.

The curfew law has no bell to warn the juvenile public of its operation, and in consequence the Town Council of Uniontown do not attempt to enforce the ordinance. They recognize the injustice of entrapping children in so flagrant a manner.

But the law-making powers of Pennsylvania, in spite of frequent protests do not know or do not care whether the public has any information of the laws they enact and which the people must obey, though they have knowledge of them or not, for it is an ancient and still honored maxim of jurisprudence, that "ignorance of the law excuses no man."

That is a part of the common law handed down to us from England, but provision is made for the publication of the laws in a newspaper, and they are enacted by Parliament. Even in the most ancient times, before the advent of newspapers, the laws and edicts of royalty were published by proclamation through an official herald.

We have improved upon the ancient practices in many respects. We have abolished royalty and set up a free republic, whose foundation stones are the Rights of Man and yet in the matter of publishing the laws to the legislative branch of the government tramples those rights in the mire, spits upon and scoffs at them.

KEFFER TO THE FRONT.
Principal John Longsuffering Keffer has been relieved of substitute teaching in Dunbar township and will have plenty of time this fall to write and speak his strenuous Democratic speeches that are the pride, the glory and the bliss of Fayette county Democracy, over a "Triumphal Democracy" before the election, but never at the polls.

Professor Keffer will be somewhat handicapped in this campaign. His specialty was the time that Willie Bryan played, one which the Democratic party twice did on, the a free status of "Sixteen-to-One and No Compromise."

But John can be depended upon to look up new materials for argument. Like Goldsmith's Village Schoolmaster, "Even tho' vanquished, he could argue still."

The Probationists are getting active. They have as much chance in carrying Fayette county as the Democrats.

"The good, old times," when a reading was now in Connellville, have been improved upon since, and so far the Rights of Man are in the matter as is known nobody said, but for the publishing the laws to the legislative

Just as soon as the money question was eliminated from politics and the reflection of a Republican President assured the business of the country began to improve. We are good for four more years of Republican prosperity, and capital has already begun to discount the fact.

Snake stories are coming in. The season is a little late, but that was perhaps too faint of the snakes.

Fayette county has some poor people, some bad people and some crazy people that are boarding at the expense of the taxpayers, and some that are not, but ought to be.

It is a big fat rotten, Craw Noddy, snatched the wind of distrust when he broke faith in China, and if he continues to threaten the peace of Europe he will reap the whirlwind of destruction.

Bellevue is suspected of having a venereal disease, and is getting on his feet.

The threatened Fall River strike will be the best Democratic argument. The Democratic organs have charged the Republican party with responsibility for everything that is bad except to a other.

Parker is back by the Money Box.
